April 30th, 2020 New York

The company announced today, the deployment of the Doctor-Vid.com platform for Doctor/Patient scheduling of E-Video sessions solving the immediate issues caused by the global lockdown challenges being created by the COVID19 Pandemic.

SmartCard Marketing Systems Inc (OTC:SMKG) releases a Tele-Medicine platform with a rich suite of features enabling Doctor's and their Assistants to manage scheduling, messaging, notifications and remote sessions by E-video, with a selection of the most popular E-Video Conferencing utilities available in the markets. Additionally, the E-billing allows for Pre or Post Pay for the sessions.

How it works? The current integrated solutions include, Go-to-Meeting, Google Hangouts and Zoom. The Doctor's can simply select their preference and activate with existing credentials or opt-in by signing up for a package.

Massimo Barone CEO Stated "The need for business continuity has become a priority and to manage the simple day-to-day schedule meetings has become a challenge specifically for the health industry. We have the flexibility of retooling our applications to meet the immediate needs of various industries or markets. We see this as a long term solution offering and expanding the platform into a marketplace for all types of Clinics. Our focus is the billing and payments component with the added benefit of now having virtualized our main platformss"
